District Goals

The Muscogee County School District will create an environment that focuses in Tier 1 instruction while targeting individual student needs, leadership development, and customer service.

School's Smart Goals

Smart Goal #1

- By May 2019 80% of RMSOTA teachers will effectively implement the site based formative assessment process.

Smart Goal #2

- By May 2019 at least 80% of the instructional faculty will provide input as it relates to school decision making.

Smart Goal #3

- By May 2019 at least 80% of the arts faculty will effectively implement arts related instructional strategies and performance practices.

WHAT IS TITLE I?

Rainey-McCuller's School of the Arts is identified as a Title I school as part of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA).

Title I is a federal grant that was designed to ensure that all children receive a high quality education and reach grade level proficiency. Title I programs must be based on effective means of improving student achievement and include strategies to support parent and family engagement.

School Plan for Shared Student Achievement!

What is it?

The Parent and Family Engagement Policy describes how Rainey-McCullers School of the Arts will provide opportunities to improve parent engagement to support student learning. Rainey-McCullers School of the Arts values the contributions and involvement of parents in order to establish a partnership for the common goal of improving student achievement. The Parent and Family Engagement Policy describes the different ways the school will support parent engagement and how parents can be involved.

How is it developed?

Rainey-McCullers School of the Arts welcomes parent input and comments at any time regarding the Parent and Family Engagement Policy. The Parent and Family Engagement Policy is available for parents to view and provide feedback throughout the year. All parent feedback will be used to revise the plan for next year. Rainey-McCullers School of the Arts also distributes a Title I Survey to request parents' suggestions on the Parent and Family Engagement Policy and the use of funds for parent involvement.

Who is it for?

All parents at Rainey-McCullers School of the Arts are encouraged and invited to fully participate in the opportunities described in the Parent and Family Engagement Policy. Rainey-McCullers School of the Arts will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with limited English, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory children.

Where is it available?

The Parent and Family Engagement Policy will be sent home with each student and is also available in the Parent Resource room and on the school's website.
