2. DATA COLLECTION ANALYSIS

2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA’s data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by “TFS” (too few students).

What perception data did you use?	Surveys and discussions with stakeholders
-----------------------------------	---

What does the perception data tell you?	The perception data tells us that we do a good job with planning units and lessons in meeting the overall needs of our students. We spend a fair amount of time focusing on the needs of our struggling learners, but also spend the necessary time with our more accelerated students. Differentiation is a common practice, and our lessons try to focus on the whole learner in the classroom through application of IB practices across all classrooms. The leadership and administration spends time working with staff to build relationships, focusing on fostering staff and student successes. The administration finds ways to make teachers more effective by determining needs as revealed in data collection. The administration works with various leadership groups within the building to foster a sense of ownership and developing teacher-leaders among the staff. We develop a comprehensive support system that is timely and targeted to individual needs of teachers and other staff. We believe that we have a naturally nurturing environment that is well suited to learning, and that our parents and other stakeholders feel welcomed in the school. We have well established practices for communicating with our parents and other stakeholders, and feel that we have established meaningful relationships within the community. We have established a culture that supports the learning of all of our students, and are preparing them for college and career through their positive transitions to high school.

What process data did you use?	Assessment strategies, Instructional Strategies, Classroom Practices
--------------------------------	--

What does your process data tell you?	Teachers are collaborating and discussing strengths and weaknesses based on formative and summative assessments. Teachers need support in how to link the appropriate strategy with student weaknesses. It provides information on what professional development or support should be given to help teachers improve student achievement.
---------------------------------------	---

What achievement data did you use?	Formative and Summative Assessment, GMAS, Report Cards
------------------------------------	--

What does your achievement data tell you?	Students demonstrate support is need in writing (informational and narrative). It also demonstrates a weakness in mathematics. Literacy should continue to be our focus in that we are growing but students data demonstrates a drop when entering 7th grade.
---	---

What demographic data did you use?	Student and Teacher
------------------------------------	---------------------

What does the demographic data tell you?	African American boys need more stringent differentiation (behavior and academics) SWD-guided instruction, stringent differentiation, continuous formative assessment Teachers-Continue professional learning (instructional strategies and differentiation), Gradual Release and Writing Across the Curriculum would improve student achievement in all content areas

3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.1 Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Read the trends and patterns summaries from each section of the data analysis process. Use the information in these summaries to complete 3.2 and 3.3. Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.2. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Coherent Instructional: Summarize the coherent instructional system trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Lesson planning is important. We will work on focusing on all students. Lessons are moving toward focusing on the whole learner in the classroom. We are implementing IB practices in all classrooms.
Effective Leadership: Summarize the effective leadership trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The leadership spends time working with staff to build relationships, focusing on fostering staff and student successes. We are improving with buy-in with some initiatives but will work to motivate all faculty and staff. We must find ways to reach the entire staff. The leadership spends time and effort finding ways to make teachers more effective by determining needs as revealed in data collection.
Professional Capacity: Summarize the professional capacity trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The administration works with various leadership groups within the building to foster a sense of ownership and developing teacher-leaders among the staff. Our goal is to have more teacher-leaders to ensure a sense of ownership over the decisions made in the school.
Family and Community Engagement: Summarize the family and community engagement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	We communicate with our parents and other stakeholders. We will continue to build trust with our stakeholders by ensuring that we provide them with up-to-date and accurate information in our communications. We have community engagement and participation of some parents in our school community, but there are underrepresented populations that we would like to be a part of our school community.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Supportive Learning Environment: Summarize the supportive learning environment trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The staff does a good job with working to provide a supportive learning environment, ensuring that the classroom experience is relatively distraction free and conducive to learning. We have some teachers that still struggle with classroom management practices.

Demographic and Financial: Summarize the demographic and financial trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Our special education population operates in an inclusion model. We focus on SpEd teacher support through our LEA. The LEA monitors their lesson plans and instructional practices. We will continue to work with this area because the population is growing. Our African American males need more support as it relates to academics and behavior.

Student Achievement: Summarize the student achievement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Writing is a weakness and we plan to incorporate Writing Across the Curriculum. It also demonstrates a weakness in mathematics. Literacy should continue to be our focus. We see a drop when students leave 6th grade and enter 7th grader as it relates to Literacy.

IDEA – Special Education, Economically Disadvantaged Children, and English Learners.

Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.3. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths	We have a large population of Special Education students that are served in inclusion. Our LEA is strong in instruction and other supports that are necessary to have an effective SpEd program, but she is physically with us for a limited amount of time (shared with two other schools). Our SpEd teachers work well with our students and are effective in building relationships with students.

Challenges	As our SpEd population grows, our needs will become more diversified, and we will address the needs as they surface. Currently, SpEd makes up about 15% of our overall population. Working in Special Eduaction has high turnover/burn-out. Making sure that we have strong and effective special education teachers is a challenge.
