2. DATA COLLECTION ANALYSIS

2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA's data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by "TFS" (too few students).

What perception data did you use?	Student surveys, Parent surveys, Faculty surveys , and parent surveys
-----------------------------------	---

What does the perception data tell you?	Teachers feel disruptive behaviors take away from the learning. The majority of the teachers responded favorably to questions. There were no surprises. The questions dealing with respect, bullying, and parental involvement were the lowest rated areas.
---	---

What process data did you use?	Observations, SWIS, PBIS, Data Team Documentation
--------------------------------	---

What does your process data tell you?	Some teachers are implementing processes with fidelity. Some departments are stronger with implementation than others. We need to improve consistency across the building. When there are breakdowns in a group, the rest of the group takes on increased responsibility to keep the processes in place.
---------------------------------------	--

What achievement data did you use?	Georgia Milestones Observational Data
------------------------------------	--

What does your achievement data tell you?	Baker Middle School is working to increase overall student achievement. Baker will continue to streamline instruction and pacing to support transient students, implement strategies to support students who do not speak English, focus on Reading strategies to increase lexiles and improve instructional strategies and RTI to support students varying needs.
---	--

What demographic data did you use?	Georgia Milestones, GOSA
------------------------------------	--------------------------

What does the demographic data tell you?

The demographics and financial trends observed by the team include the low socioeconomic status of many of the families at Baker Middle School. The school also has an ESOL population and continues to receive students who do not speak English. Baker also has a very transient population.

3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.1 Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Read the trends and patterns summaries from each section of the data analysis process. Use the information in these summaries to complete 3.2 and 3.3. Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.2. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Coherent Instructional: Summarize the coherent instructional system trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	In terms of curriculum, Baker Middle School is operational in that teachers participate in collaborative planning to share their understanding of the curriculum, standards, assessment, and instruction. However, weaknesses are evident in instruction and assessment because only some teachers implement instructional best practices like including rigor in their lessons, creating academically challenging learning environments, and differentiating instruction. Teachers know and understand the schedule for common planning, professional development, and data team meetings. Teachers are familiar with and know how to access curriculum documents, pacing guides, data forms. Teachers, coaches, and support staff know what is expected in classroom observations and receive support and feedback in areas of need. We will continue to streamline professional development, observations, and feedback. We will provide content specific examples when necessary and use the Data Team meetings to set high expectations for common assessments and student monitoring.

Effective Leadership: Summarize the effective leadership trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Leadership consistently provides opportunities for collaboration and leadership. Leadership also works to ensure students and teachers have the resources needed to improve instruction. Monitoring student achievement through the use of data teams helps identify standards and student needing additional work or where teachers need to focus. The leadership assures that observational tools are used to monitor implementation of curriculum and all decisions are data driven. Additionally, a common vision and mission are shared by mostly all stakeholders. However, although operational, the leadership can improve to exemplary in the areas of building and fostering relationships where all staff is fully engaged and timelier feedback is provided.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Professional Capacity: Summarize the professional capacity trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Baker Middle School is exemplary in the professional capacity. This is because of the multiple opportunities for professional learning, shared decision making, and the availability of resources to implement professional learning. However, this area can be strengthened by being more strategic with aligning professional learning to the needs identified and providing ongoing support to those in need.
Family and Community Engagement: Summarize the family and community engagement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Baker Middle School creates a well-established learning environment that is warm and inviting to family and community members. It provides opportunities for family members to become actively engaged in school-related events. At our school's monthly meetings, the parenting facilitator and staff members, promote clear and open communication between the school and its stakeholders so that collaborative decision-making is systematic in connecting families with agencies who also promote individual student's ability to be successful at our school. However, as observed by the whole team, regular communication related to individual students and support strategies used to enhance academic achievement at home continues to be at operational.
Supportive Learning Environment: Summarize the supportive learning environment trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Baker has a school staff that fully supports students to maximize their personal growth and development. Our school consistently makes an effort to recognize and celebrate academic achievements of students and teachers throughout the school year. However, within the school, the rules, practices, and procedures set in place are not being sustained to promote positive interactions between students and teachers. Some classroom teachers have not established well-managed and academically challenging environments. Therefore, the support that students need for college and career readiness is still emerging.
Demographic and Financial: Summarize the demographic and financial trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The demographics and financial trends observed by the team include the low socioeconomic status of many of the families at Baker Middle School. The school also has an ESOL population and continues to receive students who do not speak English. Baker also has a very transient population.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Student Achievement: Summarize the student achievement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Baker Middle School is working to increase overall student achievement. Baker will continue to streamline instruction and pacing to support transient students, implement strategies to support students who do not speak English, focus on Reading strategies to increase lexiles and improve instructional strategies and RTI to support students varying needs.

IDEA – Special Education, Economically Disadvantaged Children, and English Learners.

Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.3. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths	Strengths include common planning, effective leadership and the opportunity for professional learning. Teachers know and understand curriculum documents and are provided opportunities for collaboration and leadership. Leadership also works to ensure teachers have resources to increase the efficiency and use of data to monitor student achievement. Teachers have clear expectations and have an academic coach to support the implementation of those expectations.
------------------	--

Challenges	Challenges include high teacher turnover, which impacts the effectiveness of professional development. Topics are often repeated instead of mastered because of the need to train new teachers each year. Some classroom teachers have not established well-managed and academically challenging environments. Students are also transient and teachers don't have the opportunity to work with them for the entire year. The number of students who speak English as a second language has also been challenging. Some students speak little to no English and some have had no formal education.
