NEWS RELEASE

GSCA Names State and Regional Award Winners

(Columbus, GA)-The Georgia School Counselors Association (GSCA) names Dr. B.J. McBride, Director of Guidance, Safe and Drug-Free Schools, and Social Work, the Region V “Supervisor of the Year” for the state of Georgia. Two Muscofee County School District counselors are also GSCA award winners. Amy Johnson, of Downtown Magnet Academy, is Region V “Counselor of the Year” and Trikella Nelson, of Columbus High School, is Region V “Secondary School Counselor” of the year.

“Professional recognition encourages excellence and instills professional pride,” said Kristi Hess, Professional Recognition Chair of the Georgia School Counselors Association. “It is obvious award recipients are committed to upholding the quality and professionalism associated with GSCA.”

State and Region winners will be recognized at the GSCA Fall Conference Awards Ceremony on Thursday, November 20, 2008 in Augusta, Georgia.
